

For biological positivists one is FALSE about the cause for crime:

- a. society a factor behind criminal activity
- b. Biological abnormality can be a cause for crime.
- C. The cause for crime is the biological makeup of criminals.
- d. There is physical difference between potential criminals and non-criminals

After a project is appraised what is the next step in project activity?

- a. Project implementation
- b. Project problem identification
- C. Project evaluation
- d. Project monitoring

In a research, which one of the following activities comes first?

- a. Determining the sample size.
- b. Collecting data

C. Writing a research proposal.

D. Identifying the research problem.

Time left 1:00:3

In which one of the following perspectives does a sociologist see the causes of the unfair distribution of resources in a society?

a. Conflict perspective

b. Symbolic interactionist perspective

C. Both Structural functionalist and conflict perspectives

d. Structural functionalist perspective

Which of the following roles is NOT part of a person's social identity?

A. Political affiliations

b. Gender roles

C. Personal ego

d. Religious roles

Among the types of organizations identified by Talcot parsons, which one plays a key role in performing the adaptation function of a society?

a. Economic organization

b. Pattern maintenance organization

c. Integrative organization

d. Production organization

Which one of the following is TRUE about social institutions?

a. Social institutions extremely dynamic

b. Social institutions created by government

C.Social institutions are created to destroy societal basic needs

d. Social institutions are organized by society to meet basic needs

Which one of the following intellectual forces behind the development of sociological theory by emphasized the importance of reason and empirical research?

- a. The French revolution
- b. The Enlightenment thinking
- c. The industrial revolution
- d. Counter-Enlightenment ideas

Which one is FALSE about probability sampling method?

- a. It offers equal chance of selection to the members of the study population.
- b. It gives chance to select the representatives of a study population.
- c. It is used when the size of the study population is too small.
- d. It is mostly used in quantitative research.

Human trafficking is a form of:

- A. Violent crime

b. Property crime

C.Hate crime

d.Organized crime

What is snowball sampling?

a It is one of the methods of identifying key informants.

b. It is one of the methods of identifying in-depth interview informants.

C.It is one of the probability sampling techniques.

d It is one of the techniques of identifying informants with the help of informants.

The last activity in designing a social policy is:

a. Agenda setting

b. Policy formulation

c. Policy adoption

d. Policy evaluation

For symbolic interactionists, one of the following is NOT the function of symbols for human beings.

- a. Increasing the ability to solve problems.
- b. Helping to limit oneself in time and space.
- c. Enabling to act in human ways.
- d. Improving the ability to think.

Which statement describes structural-deterministic perspective regarding entry to work?

- a. People's choice of work is the result of personal and institutional factors.
- b. People choose their work based on their interest.
- c. External forces define people's choice of work.
- d. People can win poverty if they work hard.

What is the focus of the statement of the problem in a research?

- a. Presenting the society's needs that deserves institutional attention.
- b. Presenting the society's various social problems that need intervention.

c. Presenting the research problem that needs a research intervention.

d. Presenting the significance of the research to be made.

Different social classes:

a. Have similar attitudes towards family life.

b. Have similar attitudes towards the role of women

c. They Value education differently.

d Have the same life styles

One from the following alternatives is NOT the roles of courts:

a. Create new norms through interpretation of Constitutions

b. Convicting the guilty

C.Judging

d. Defending the accused against the national law

Viewed from a sociological perspective, why do you think people marry each other?

- a. Because they have a desire to satisfy their biological desires formally.
- b. Because they learn from others who marry each other.
- c. Because they want to replace themselves and please their parents.
- d. Because they want to contribute to the continuation of generation.

Which one is different?

- a. Simple Random sampling
- b. Snowball sampling
- c. Quota sampling
- d. Convenience sampling

Projects have one of the following qualities:

- A. Have specific objectives
- b. Have no specific objectives

C. Have permanency

D. Have no target group

What do you understand by the sociological view of urbanization?

a. Urbanization is a bio-physical process.

b. Urbanization is a social process.

c. Urbanization is a physical process.

d. Urbanization is a natural process.

Social policy formulation requires the participation of all of the following EXCEPT:

a. Legislators

b. The concerned communities

c. Development stakeholders

d. Project designers.

One of the following is NOT among the functions of crime indicated by Emile Durkheim?

A. Crime helps to clarify the boundary between right and wrong.

b. Crime strengthens a society's norms and values. D

c. Crime encourages political change.

d. Strengthens unity among people.

Identify the latent consequence of industrialization.

A. Massive production

b. Societal transformation

C. Resource degradation

d. Improved way of life

Which one is NOT a characteristic of quota sampling?

a. The sample may be biased.

b. It is relatively cheap and fast.

C. The sample may not be representative.

d. It is expensive and time consuming

Which one of the following is WRONG about modernization?

a. Tradition can exist in modernization.

b. Modernization and tradition are not necessarily opposing

C. Modernization can emerge from tradition.

d. Modernization is a complete removal of tradition.

Which one is the right order of project activities though they are not mutually exclusive?

a. Project design, Project problem identification, Project appraisal, Project implementation, Project monitoring

b. Project problem identification, Project appraisal, Project design, Project implementation, Project monitoring

c. Project problem identification, Project design, Project implementation, Project appraisal,, Project monitoring d. Project Problem identification, Project design, Project appraisal, Project implementation Project monitoring

Identify the most important rural social institution.

a. Military

O b. law

C. Industry

d. Family

Which form of government controls all aspects of a person's life?

a. Authoritarian

b. Monarchical

C. Theocratic

d. Totalitarian

One is NOT from the Components of modern criminal justice system

Law enforcement

- a. National defense forces
- b. Correctional administration
- c. Prosecution
- d. Court

One of the following data collection tools DOES NOT require a face to face contact between the researcher and the study population.

- a. Guide questions
- b. Interview guides
- c. Observation checklist
- d. Questionnaire

Rural areas are known with one of the following:

- a. Moderate population density.
- b. Low population density.

C. Very high population density.

d. High population density.

A social position has two parts. They are:

a. Rights and statuses

b. Cooperation and conflict

C. Rights and conflicts

d. Obligations and rights

Which one is NOT a key attribute of a profession?

a. Having formal and informal sanctions.

b. Having a code of ethics.

c. Having good academic performance.

d. Having authority over clients.

Which one of the following organizational theory NEGLECTS the socio-cultural context of work?

A. Weber's interpretivist strand

b. Durkheim's systems strand

c. Democratic humanism

d. Tylorism

Which one is the building block for a sociological analysis of rural society?

a. Rural household

b. Rural economy

c. Rural culture

d. Rural politics

Of the following concentric zones of a city, which one has minimal social problems?

a. Zone III

b. Zone I

C. Zone II

d. Zone V

It refers to the distribution of groups defined by ascribed characteristics across occupations.

a. Occupational culture

b. Occupational segregation

c. Occupational identity

d. Occupational distribution

Which one of the following is NOT within the domain of social action?

a. Unconscious response to available stimuli around.

b. Selecting the most important stimuli among many.

c. Delaying from immediate reaction to the stimuli.

d. Analyzing the cost and effect of reaction to the stimuli.

The concept survival of the fittest' is used in social science by:

- a. Charles Darwin
- b. Herbert Spencer
- c. Auguste Comte
- d. Karl Marx

Criminal acts performed by juveniles are referred to as:

- a. Juvenile delinquency
- b. Juvenile criminology
- c. Youth crime
- d. Child crime

One of the following is NOT among the major social classes:

- a. Upper classes
- b. Lower classes

C. Super class

d. Middle classes

Which one of the following is WRONG about social policy?

a. It serves as political tool for non-government actors.

b. It is a study of social services and welfare state.

c. It links social welfare, politics, and society.

d. Its aim is to promote the public interest.

Which one of the following refers to the act of passing value judgments on the cultures of others groups?

a. Cultural relativism

b. Ethnocentrism

c. Xenocentrism

d. Multiculturalism

One of the following is among the positive consequences of the action taken on a social problem:

- a. Preventing the expansion of the social problems.
- b. Deteriorating the social problem.
- c. Escalating the social problem.
- d. Creations of new problems.

Symbolic interactionism perspective focuses on one of the following issues:

- a. The way individuals become passive receivers of the society.
- b. The way individuals shape the society as a whole.
- c. The way individuals are shaped by the society.
- d. The way researchers interpret the social world.

Which statement is TRUE about policy and planning?

- a. Planning can be done without policy.
- b. Planning requires having a prior knowledge about Policy.

c. Planning comes before Policy.

d. Policy is about what to do while Planning is about how to do.

Penology is the study of:

a. Delinquency.

b. Prisons and prison systems.

c. Women and crime.

d. Crime detection.

Which of the following is not a part of self-identity?

a. Religious thought

b. Roles

c. Personal traits

d. Self-esteem

Which of the following is the major objective of rural sociology?

- a. The scientific study of rural education institutions.
- b. A comprehensive study of rural social organization.
- c. The scientific study of rural political institutions.
- d. The systematic study of polity and urban setting.

The typical example of latent function of a given educational institution can be:

- a. Place to get educational credential.
- b. Teaching and research.
- c. Place for mate selection for marriage.
- d. Knowledge production and dissemination.

Which one of the following is FALSE about the basic features of developing countries?

- a. Presence of strong healthcare systems.
- b. Prevalence of poverty.

c. High rates of population growth.

d. Dependence on raw agriculture.

One is NOT from the possible justifications behind social policies:

a. The needs of elites need to be addressed in planned way.

b. It leads to fair distribution of the benefits.

c. Resources are scarce and need to be fairly distributed.

d. It assists societal development endeavors.

Which of the following is NOT the view of dependency theory?

a. The developed countries become wealthy by exploiting the poorest countries.

b. The developing countries are dependent on the developed countries.

c. The developed nations supporting the poorer nations to be developed.

d. The developed countries dominate the developing countries.

A document that has a detailed description of an completed research activity is termed as:

- a. Research proposal
- b. Research methods
- C. Research report
- d. Research budget

Which one of the following is NOT among the basic social institutions of society?

- a. Family
- b. Education
- C. Political Party
- d. Media

Which one of the following is NOT among the basic social institutions of society?

- a. Family
- b. Education

C. Political Party

d. Media

Identify the one which was NOT the result of the industrial revolution?

a. Cultural change

b. Industry-based economy

C. Urbanization

d. Knowledge-based economy

One is WRONG about the causes of social problems from the sociological view:

a. Social inequality

b. Ethnicity

c. Gender system

d. Individual physical appearance

One is out of the scope of rural sociology:

- a. The study of rural social change.
- b. The study of rural forest.
- c The study of rural planning.
- d. The study of rural development.

One is a reason for politics to exist.

- a. Gap in distribution of power.
- b. Even distribution of power.
- c. Universally accessible nature of power.
- d. Consensus among members of a society.

Which one of the following is WRONG about social problems?

- a. There is no society without social problems.
- b. Social problems do not have significant impact on individuals.

c. Many social problems are less serious now than in the past.

d. Social problems are persistent.

In the proper management of a project, one of the following is NOT important?

a. Money

b. Resources

c. Mgovernment political affiliation

d. Time

The core countries engage in one of the following activities:

a. Producing capital goods.

b. Exporting capital goods

C.Dominating the international trade.

d. Importing capital goods.

Tim

Sustainable development is NOT concerned with one of the following:

a. The past generation.

b. The future generation.

c. Environmental protection.

d. The current generation.

Time left 2:06:48

The reproductive role of a family is secondary since it can be substituted by other means. this idea best matches with:

a. Feminist

b. Gender

c. Symbolic Interactionist

d. Functionalist

According to Emile Durkheim, what holds individuals together in the modern society?

- a. Similarity of occupations.
- b. Unity of occupations.
- c. Difference of occupations.
- d. Uniformity of occupations.

Time left 2:03:3

It refers to a socially designed unit or collectivity that engages in activities to accomplish a goal or set of necessities:

- a. Work relations
- b. Work organization
- c. Work identity
- d. Work purpose

Which one of the following statements is correct about critical theory?

- a. It believes in economic determinism.

b. It focuses on abstract theorization about society.

C. It focuses on criticizing and changing society.

d. It aims to maintain the existing order of society.

Time left 2:01:39

Which one of the following is a commonly shared function of family, religion, and education as basic institutions of society?

a. Regulating sexual behavior

b. Screening individuals for jobs

c. Giving emotional comfort

d. Socializing members

It is an organized, conscious, and continual attempt to select the best available alternative courses of action to achieve specific goals.

a. Social participation

b. Social planning

C. Social intervention

d. Social policy

Form the following one is NOT a social problem?

a. Suicide

b.Divorce

C. Corruption

d. Religion

What is work for a sociologist?

a. Any work outside home.

b. Any income generating activity.

C. A means of making a living.

d. Any domestic work

One of the following is NOT among the characteristics of modernization theory?

- a. Proposing solutions to get rid of poverty.
- b. It makes responsible the developed countries for the poverty of developing countries.
- c. Targeting internal problems of developing countries.
- d. Attempting to explain the poverty of underdeveloped nations.

Time left

Effective project preparation and analysis must be set:

- a. Depending on the will of political authorities.
- b. In a framework of broader development plans of a country.
- c. Independent of the wider development plans of a country.
- d. In line with the political agenda of interested groups.

One of the following is NOT a goal for social policy.

- a. Prompting social integration.

b. Solving economic problems.

c. Making social problems.

d. Improving community services.

Which one is NOT taken as a major criterion in the definition of urban area?

a. Land size

b. Population size

c. Legal criteria

d. Economic activity

A sampling frame is:

a. A total population that gives response.

b. An outline view of all the main clusters of units.

c. A list of accessible population from which a sample is drawn.

d. A wooden frame used to display tables of random numbers.

Time left 1:50:49

Among the following land tenure systems in Ethiopia, which one grants a collective land right to every member of a rural community?

- a. State land tenure
- b. Command land tenure
- c. Private land tenure
- d. Communal land tenure

One of the following is a characteristic of social facts?

- a. They exist wholly in the minds of individuals
- b. They should be explained by other social facts.
- c. They are reducible to the level of an individual.
- d. They are internal to and coercive of the individual.

The Marxist view of social classes emphasizes:

- a. Social aspects.
- b. Economic aspects
- c. Political aspects.
- d. Cultural aspects.

Who can be considered as a 'historical sociologist'?

- a. Max Weber
- b. Lewis Coser
- c. Vilfredo Pareto
- d. Herbert Spencer

One of the following is TRUE about the characteristics of projects:

- a. Have no well-defined objective.
- b. Have definite starting and completion date.

C. Have fragmented tasks.

d. Using various resources.

Which one of the following is a method of data collection in a quantitative study?

a. Focus group discussion

b. Key informant interview

C. In-depth interview

d. Sample Survey

Which of the following types of questions limits respondents freedom in responding questions.

a. Leading questions

b. Close-ended questions

C Open-ended questions

d. Double-barreled questions

Criminology as a branch of criminal science, DOES NOT study one of the following topics:

- a. The promotion of crime.
- b. The analysis of crime.
- c. The causes of crime.
- d. The prevention of crime.

Among the concentric zones of an urban area, which one is known for multiple social problems?

- a. Zone III
- b. Zone I
- c. Zone IV
- d. Zone II

Which of the following is CORRECT about an ideal type as a model?

- a. It is directly taken from the real world.

- b. It has nothing to do with the real world.
- c. It is created by sociologist from the elements of the real world.
- d. It is subjectively created and used by a sociologist

A government encompasses one of the following elements:

- a. A group of people with authority.
- b. Monopoly over the making of rules.
- c. Geographic boundary.
- d. Organized social institutions.

Which of the following is the characteristic of an ideal-type bureaucracy?

- a. Employment depends on the will of the manager.
- b. There is less professional freedom.
- c. Interactions are more impersonal than personal.

d. Office activities are spoken by officers.

The Biosocial Theories of social problems:

a. Seek to reorient scholars to relate social problems to individual personal factor.

b. Seek to establish the relationship between sociology and biology.

c. Seek to establish the fact that the social environment can influence biology.

d. Seek to explain social behavior in terms biological traits of humans.

Which of the following goes with the Marx's view of religion?

a. Religion serves the interest of the ruling class.

b. Religion promotes social change by reforming society.

c. Religion serves the interest of the working class.

d. Religion encourages collective political action.

A study in which 'social class' is presented as the wealth that a person accumulated, income he/she gained, and educational status he/she achieved, what did the researcher do about social class'?

a. He/she elaborated it.

b. He/she defined it

C. He/she operationalized it.

d. He/she explained it.

Which one is the advantage of using a questionnaire?

a.It is cheaper to administer.

b. It requires more resource to be used for data collection.

c. There is no chance of asking for more explanation.

d. It can be affected by the nature of the interview.

Time left 1:03:0

According to the pluralist theory, one of the following prevents the monopoly of power by few individuals.

- a. The presence of dictatorial government.
- b. Negotiation among different interest groups.
- c. Absence of interest groups.
- d. Continuous circulation of elites.

One of the following is NOT from the development challenges in Ethiopia?

- A. Conflict and war
- B. Conservative culture.
- C. Stable political climate.
- D. Weak educational system which focuses on theory than practice.

Who formulated the Elite Theory?

a. Gaetano Mosca

b. Vilfredo Pareto

c. Karl Marx

d. Max Weber

Which one of the following is CORRECT about social problems?

a. They are uniform from society to society.

b. They are limited to time and space.

c. They can be solved permanently.

d. They exist forever changing their forms.

Business and political crimes are referred to as

- a. White Collar Crime
- b. Juvenile Delinquency
- c. Victimless-Crime
- d. Crimes against humanity

Identify the view of symbolic interactionists regarding meaning

- a. Meaning resists change.
- . b. Meaning is a natural fact.
- c. Meaning is socially created.
- d. Meaning is external to interaction

Which one is NOT the duty of a police officer?

a. Detecting criminal

b. Awareness creation

c. Peacekeeping

d. Judging

